Consultation: 17 October to 28 November 2024

Representation Form

We welcome your comments on the Proposed Main Modifications to the Kent Minerals and Waste Local Plan 2024-39.

The Kent Minerals and Waste Local Plan 2024-39 was submitted to the Secretary of State for independent examination on 17 May 2024. The appointed Planning Inspector has now considered all representations made regarding the documents and discussed all relevant matters and issues during hearings in September 2024, and, in light of this, a number of Main Modifications have been identified that are required to ensure the Local Plan is sound and legally compliant.

Before the Inspector can make final recommendations on the proposed Main Modifications, they must be subject to public consultation.

An appraisal of the impacts of the Main Modifications on social, economic and environmental objectives has been undertaken and included in a Sustainability Appraisal (SA) which has also been published.

Please use this form to tell us your views on the soundness and legal compliance of the proposed Main Modifications and the accompanying Sustainability Appraisal. Your representations will be collated and passed on to the Planning Inspector who will then consider what further changes may need to be made to the draft Kent Minerals and Waste Local Plan 2024-39 before it can be adopted.

Once completed you can upload this form online at www.kent.gov.uk/mineralsandwaste

If you are unable to upload the form, please complete this Word/paper form and return it to:

After this stage, further submissions will only be invited at the request of the Planning Inspector.

Full representations will be submitted to the Planning Inspector. They will be made publicly available on our website with all personal data removed. Please read our privacy statement below for further details.

Consultation: 17 October to 28 November 2024

The Inspector must be satisfied that the Local Plan meets four soundness requirements:

- is 'positively prepared',
- is 'justified',
- 'effective',
- 'consistent with national policy'.

In the Guidance Note you will find explanations on each of these four requirements and how they need to be met.

Q2c. If you consider the Main Modification to be unsound, please select the reason for this: Please select all that apply.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Not positively prepared
<input type="checkbox"/>	Not justified
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Not effective
<input type="checkbox"/>	Not consistent with national policy

Q2d. If you consider this Main Modification to be unsound and/or not legally compliant, please explain why in the box below. Please be precise and give as much detail as possible.

Southern Water is both the statutory water supplier and wastewater undertaker for many parts of Kent. We support the addition of wording proposed in main modification MM60, but would strongly support including the need to contact the Operator of the Source Protection Zone (SPZ) concerned.

We make this request because:

The measures encouraged by planning policy should protect public water supplies.

Source Protection Zones (SPZ) are created by the Environment Agency for licensed groundwater abstractions that warrant additional protection as they provide public drinking water supply. It is important to keep drinking water standards in mind when protecting SPZ. These are more stringent than the environmental standards more often referred to in guidance for the protection of groundwater.

The principle rule of groundwater protection is preventing or avoiding potentially contaminating activities from occurring in the first place within groundwater catchments used for drinking water. Although groundwater is treated before feeding into supply, planned treatment processes cannot react to every change in water quality. Were an SPZ to become contaminated, this could result in loss of public water supply. It is therefore critical to protect water quality in source protection zones.

In general terms, the closer contamination is to the abstraction the greater the risk to drinking water quality. However, in dual porosity aquifers such as the Chalk, water moves via discrete fractures in the rock. This means that contaminants can travel much greater distances in very short periods of time with reduced contaminant attenuation/degradation potential. This situation therefore presents much higher risks to the quality of a groundwater abstraction source used for public drinking water supply.

Consultation: 17 October to 28 November 2024

Southern Water's groundwater abstractions are predominantly found in the Chalk aquifer. The hydrogeological sensitivity will be dictated by site geology, depth to groundwater/ unsaturated zone thickness, Southern Water's updated modelled transient groundwater catchment zones, the presence of karst features, etc.

Southern Water expect mitigation measures to be reflective of the hydrogeological sensitivity of the site. Hydrogeological risk assessments provide the information necessary to fully understand infiltration pathways to the SPZ and the hydrogeological sensitivity of the site location. Developers should always contact the Operator of an SPZ (either Southern Water or South East Water in Kent) to ensure proposed measures will sufficiently mitigate any risk of impacting negatively on the SPZ.

Q3. In light of the above, please explain in the box below what change(s) you consider necessary to make the Kent Minerals and Waste Local Plan 2024-39 legally compliant and/or sound.

Please be precise as possible and explain why this change(s) would make the Local Plan legally compliant and sound. Please also include in your response any suggested revised wording you feel is necessary.

Please could we therefore add to MM60 so that the wording of the penultimate paragraph of Policy DM10 reads in full:

All minerals and waste proposals must include measures to ensure the achievement of both no deterioration and improved ecological status of all waterbodies within the site and/or hydrologically or hydrogeologically connected to the site. Applications for minerals and waste proposals within Source Protection Zones (SPZ) and Groundwater Vulnerability and Aquifer Designation areas must be accompanied by:

- a hydrogeological and/or hydrological assessment(s) that investigate the potential present and future risks of unacceptable adverse impacts on the water environment associated with the proposed development, and
- confirmation from the Operator of the SPZ the proposed measures adequately mitigate the risks to prevent such impacts.

In all other cases, hydrogeological and/or hydrological assessment(s) may be required to demonstrate the effects of the proposed development on the water environment and how these may be mitigated to an acceptable level.

Q4. If you support the Main Modification and wish to make any comments to that affect, please use the box below.
